A Minority Affair: The Baha'i Question and Iranian Canadians

The purpose of this research is to determine how Iranian Canadians perceive the treatment of Baha'is in Iran. This research is being funded by the Stephen Jarislowsky Chair in Religion and Conflict at Assumption University. This research is being conducted under the auspices of Assumption University and has been cleared by the University of Windsor's Research Ethics Board.

If you are an Iranian Canadian (either born in Iran or have one parent born in Iran), live in Ontario, are 18 years or older, and have a basic understanding of the treatment of Baha'is in Iran, you are invited to take part in this study.

Your participation will involve completing an online survey. This survey is anonymous. The survey will take 10 to 15 minutes to complete. Participants who complete the survey will have the option to provide their email addresses and enter into a draw to win one of 20 e-gifts valued at $20.00 each. To access the survey, click the link below and enter the password.
